DEDICATION

TO OUR PARENTS

Because of the faith, understanding, and sincerity that you have given us; because you have sacrificed so much to keep us in school for twelve years so that we might better ourselves; and most of all for your love, we the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty Seven proudly dedicate our annual, The Cle-Tracks, to you.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Senior Class of 1957, began making history in the fall of 1945, when a large number of excited and somewhat confused first graders began their education here at Cleveland. Our elementary school days were highlighted by picnics, parties, and a few short educational trips. As the years sped by, we eagerly awaited the day we would enter high school.

In the fall of 1953, that much anticipated day arrived. Sixty-seven of us awkwardly searched out our homerooms and attempted to figure out our schedule. It took time to adjust ourselves to high school routine, but under the guidance of all the teachers and our principal, Mr. Woodlief, we freshmen soon felt a part of high school. Several members of our class began to participate in 4-H Club, Glee Club, and F. F. A. activities. That year, Hilda Walton, La Vette Cooke, Jean Johnson, Betty Gayle Langdon, and Carolyn Williams were placed on the basketball team. Johnny Stephenson and Glen Walton made the baseball team also.

By the fall of 1954, we felt that we were really advancing, for it was then that we became sophomores. That year the Home Economics girls gave a fashion show which was followed by a Mother and Daughter Tea. We were especially proud of the members of our class who won recognition in this event.

New additions to the basketball teams included Lou Lee and Glen Walton. Douglas Braswell and Glenwood Stephenson were placed on the baseball team. Judy Langdon was the only member of our class to become a cheerleader that year.

When we reentered school the next fall as Juniors, we were disappointed to learn that Mr. Woodlief had not returned. But in his place, we welcomed a new principal, Mr. Walker, who, we felt, would do much for the advancement of our school.

The Monogram Club and the F. H. A. Club were organized during our Junior year. A large number of our class became members of these two clubs. That year Glenwood Stephenson was placed on the basketball team and Norman Lane was placed on the baseball team. Alene Francis and Joan McElveen were new additions to the cheerleading team.

We were excited and thrilled over the presentation of our Junior play, "A Poor Married Man", which was directed by Mrs. Gulley. The cast of our play was composed of Joan McElveen, Glen Walton, Peggy Braswell, Glenwood Stephenson, Robert Dupree, Shirley Johnson, Lorna Peedin, and Marvin Williams.

The night of our Junior-Senior Banquet will be long remembered. It was held March 16, 1956 in the high school cafeteria and was followed by a prom in our new gymnasium. We were very pleased with the results of the banquet and prom. Mrs. Boyette was sponsor for this memorable occasion.

We were happy to take part in class night exercises by presenting an arch of baseball bats for the seniors to march under in keeping with their class night play entitled "Play Ball". The marshals were Jean Johnson, chief marshal, Shirley Johnson, La Vette Cooke, Joan McElveen, and Lou Lee.

That year three juniors distinguished themselves in the following ways: Patricia King was chosen F. F. A. Sweetheart of the Cleveland Chapter; Lou Lee won honorable mention as an outstanding guard in basketball; and Shirley Johnson was awarded a history medal and a mathematics medal.

On September 6, 1956, the day we had been awaiting for eleven years had arrived. At last we were Seniors! Added to the thrill of being seniors, we had Mrs. Fisher as our homeroom teacher. We felt that we were very lucky indeed. Along the way, we had lost as well as gained a few students. Our class was now down to thirty-seven.

We will not readily forget the thrill of receiving our class rings, of choosing our superlatives and mascots, and of electing our class officers and annual staff. We are eagerly looking forward to many more important events to follow.

After graduation, the Senior Class of 1957, as a group, will stop making history. We shall always be grateful to everyone who has helped in any way to make our education here at Cleveland High School possible. We shall try to prove ourselves worthy of the sacrifices that have been made for us by striving to become good citizens of our community and our country.

Shirley Johnson

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1957, realizing that the close of our school days is near at hand, think it wise to bequeath some of our choice characteristics to those who in the future, will undertake to fill our places.

We have acquired knowledge and experience that will help us through our lives. Since the underclassmen, especially the Juniors, would be handicapped if we took all our valuable assets with us, we wish to dispose of them as follows:

SECTION I

Article I

To our teachers and principal, we express our appreciation for their understanding and long-suffering during our four years of high school.

Article II

To the Juniors, we leave our senior homeroom, the senior dignity and the thrill of being "a Senior"

Article III

To the Sophomores, we bequeath our places in the halls and beside the radiators.

Article IV

To the freshman girls, the Senior girls leave four years of untiring effort to get passing grades and still have time for socializing.

SECTION II

Article I

Their personal gifts and assets the Seniors dispose of as follows:

1. Glennis Smith leaves her sparkling brown eyes to anyone who can use them as effectively as she.
2. Doris Stephenson leaves her beloved black and white saddle oxfords to Katie Bowling to use when Katie wears out her loafers.
3. Judith Wiggins leaves the thrill of becoming engaged to Stacy Byrd and Gayle Bailey, who need only a little push.
4. Joseph Buffkin leaves his brass and ever ready comments to Mitchell Price.
5. Alene Francis leaves her long fingernails to Shirley Ogburn.
6. Doris Mims leaves her politeness and friendliness to Hilda Langdon.
7. Larry Williams leaves some of his shortness to Harold Clifton so Harold won't be easily spotted by Mr. Walker next year.
8. Marvin Williams and Dorsey King leave their ability to sleep in class to Atlee Roberts who always looks as if he needs it.
9. Hilda Walton leaves her extra pounds to Edith Gray Byrd, so Edith won't be whisked away when March winds blow.
10. Norman Lane leaves his attractive masculine voice to Jacob Parrish.
11. Glenwood Stephenson leaves all his problems with his girl friends to James Coats, with the hope that James can solve them.
12. LaVette Cooke leaves her position as Editor of Cle-Tracks to anyone who has the ability and nerves to see it through.
13. Pat King leaves her superlative "Most Beautiful" to Myra Langley.
14. Lou Lee leaves her boundless energy to B. A. Johnson.
15. Alice Jones leaves her quietness in class to Larry Barbour in order to assure some measure of peace for the teachers.
16. Jackie Dawson leaves her pony-tail hairdo to Barbara Sherill.
17. Franky Jones leaves his babyish voice to Kirby Coats.
18. Glenda Byrd leaves her headaches in General Business to all who take the course.
19. Evone Johnson leaves her dimples to Sue Beasley.
20. Jean McElveen leaves her efficiency as office assistant to William Love.
21. Jean Johnson leaves her height to Judy Stephenson so Judy won't have to look up to H. L.
22. Judy Langdon leaves her prompt answers in Economics to Marshall Dupree.
23. Betty Gayle Langdon leaves her ability to keep her boy friend to Lois Jane Messer.
24. Glen Walton leaves his driver's license to Millard Barbour who may need them.
25. Douglas Braswell leaves his smile and pleasantness to Weldon Byrd.
26. Glen Johnson leaves his nickname "Goose" to Glen Clifton.
27. Johnny Stephenson leaves his bookkeeping knowledge to Ronald and Donald Johnson to help them through their senior year.
28. Faye McGee leaves her precise manner to Neta Stephenson.
29. Gene Coats leaves his blushes to JoAnn Eakes to add to JoAnn's already lovely ones.
30. Shirley Johnson leaves her studiousness to Chester Honeycutt so he can remain on the ball team.
31. Peggy Braswell leaves her fair complexion to Genevieve Langdon.
32. Barbara Barbour leaves her dark eyebrows to John Yelvington and Leamon Canady.
33. Robert Dupree leaves his acting ability to anyone who can take his place in the future plays.
34. Carolyn Williams leaves her position as co-captain of the basketball team to anyone who can take her place.
35. Judd Stephenson leaves his superlative "Most Handsome" to Stanley Whitley.
36. Lorna Peedin leaves her "Pee Wee" appearance to Ann King.

In witness whereof we do set our seal on this the 28th day of May 1957.
